

McCabe-O'Bryan Wedding

Marion McCabe Becomes Bride of Mr. John Desaussure O'Bryan.

Mrs. Marian Gilland McCabe and Mr. John Desaussure O'Bryan were married Wednesday afternoon, December 31st, 1919, at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. M. Gilland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. H. Grier of Mayesville.

The great doors of the hospitable old colonial home were thrown wide open, and the guests were met upon their entrance by Mrs. T. M. Gilland, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. O'Bryan and Mr. Mrs. Lewis W. Gilland.

The stately proportions of the old fashioned hall and generous parlors lent themselves admirably to the beautiful decorations. Festoons of smilax were arranged along the walls and the entire house was lit with white candles, set in numberless hand some candelabra and graceful candle sticks. Mantles were banked with smilax with white candles gleaming amid the dark foliage. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Theo. Gourdin and Mrs. A. C. Swails.

Upon their entrance the guests were requested to put their signature in the bride's book, which was presided over by Miss Gertrude O'Bryan and Mr. Woodrow Gamble.

Immediately preceding the ceremony two songs were sung, "Beauty's Eyes" by Mrs. Lewis Gilland and "For You" by Mrs. Wilmont S. Gilland. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. J. J. Stackley, who also played the Tarnhauser wedding march, to the strains of which the bridal party entered the parlor. First came the dainty little ribbon girls in frilly white dresses, followed by Miss Louise Sherfess of Greenville; Miss Sarah Horton of Washington, D. C.; Miss Jane Gilland, Miss Elizabeth Swails and Miss Elizabeth Gamble. The groom and his best man, Dr. W. M. O'Bryan, entered next and were followed by the bride and her sister, Mrs. Louis Sherfess of Greenville, who acted as dame of honor. Never had the loveliness of the bride showed to better advantage than in her handsome wedding gown of orchid satin, hand embroidered in silver beads and Shetland wool and softened with flowing draperies of tulle. She carried an unusually beautiful bouquet of bride's roses with showers of lilies of the valley, and tide with brocade grenadine streamers. Her only ornament was a platinum bar set with diamonds which was the gift of the groom.

The dame of honor was beautiful in her gown of apricot satin with blue brocade girdle and court train. Her bouquet was of American beauty roses.

An isle had been made through the center of the parlor leading to one of the high windows which was used as the background of the informal altar, lit with white candles. The soft white window draperies showed through the delicate tracery of smilaxvines, and from the chandelier in the center of the room, white tulle draperies were festooned to the four corners of the room. Numerous white butterflies, made of net, were caught at intervals in the tulle and hovered gracefully in the vines which decorated the walls and windows, transforming the scene into one of fairy-like loveliness.

After the guests had congratulated the bridal couple, they were invited into another room by Miss Martha Jekinson and Mrs. A. C. Swails, where punch was served by Miss Theo Gregg of Sumter and Mr. William R. Scott.

At the door of the dining room the guests were received by Mrs. Julius Gamble and Mrs. Theodore Gourdin. The bride's table was exquisite with a hand embroidered Oriental table cover, and the chandelier green tulle was suspended to the four corners of the table. In the green of the smilax vines which were used in decorating this room, white roses bloomed. The serving of a tempting salad course was in charge of Mesdames Hugh McCutchen, W. V. Brockington, W. T. Wilkins and J. A. Metts. They were assisted in serving by little Misses Lizzie Gamble, Mildred Duvall Jane Gilland Louise Sherfess and Elizabeth Swails. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Wilmont Gilland. Dainty souvenirs of wedding cake, wrapped in handsomely monogrammed boxes were presented to the guests by Misses Louise Sherfess and Mildred Duvall.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Bryan left immediately after the ceremony for a bridal trip to Washington and further North. They will be at home at the residence of the bride's mother after the tenth of January.

The display of handsome wedding gifts showed the universal popularity of this young couple. Mr. O'Bryan is a rising young lawyer of the firm of Stoll & O'Bryan, and his bride, who has spent her entire life in Kingstree, is generally beloved.

In addition to the family the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. J. A. Metts, of Charleston; Miss Theo Gregg of Sumter; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sherfess and children of Greenville; Mrs. E. H. Duvall and Miss Duvall of Cheraw.

There were over an hundred invited guests present to witness the ceremony which united this popular young couple in the holy bonds of wedlocks. Kingstree Record.

J. M. TRULUCK DIES

Lake City, Jan. 2.—J. Moultrie Truluck, following a second stroke of paralysis at his home about 8 o'clock last night, died this morning about 1 o'clock. He suffered the first stroke about a year and a half ago while motoring between Camden and Bishopville from which he had never fully recovered but for the past year he had been able to be about his business as usual and the news of his death was a severe shock to his many friends and relatives when announced this morning.

He was the second son of B. C. and the late Mrs. Dora Truluck of the Olanta section and besides his father, the following brothers and sisters survive him: Martin Truluck, L. R. Truluck and Mrs. B. F. Furlick of Lake City, Mrs. Knight of Oklahoma, Fred W. Truluck of Marion, Mrs. Pauline Keels of Hartsville, and B. C. Truluck, Jr. of Andrews.

At the beginning of the Spanish-American war, Moultrie Truluck volunteered for service and was with the army in Cuba. Very soon after the army was demobilized he engaged in the horse and mule sales business for some time, two or three years in Timmonsville, but about 1902 came to Lake City as partner with the late J. C. McClam which partnership existed most pleasantly and profitably for more than four years when Mr. Truluck took over the entire business on his own account. He built the first modern brick sales and feed stable here in 1909, and, subsequently a block of several brick stores and also the new Baltimore hotel. Mr. Truluck was most successful in all his business enterprises, and on account of his generous, and affable disposition numbered his friends by the score.

About 1906 he was married to Miss Annie Sutcliff of this place, and she with one little son, J. N. Jr., also survive him. Mr. Truluck was about 41 year of age had quite recently been elected to the presidency of the People's bank, which with a capital stock of $100,000, fully paid in expects to open its doors for business on January 5. His funeral services will be held here at the Baptist church Sunday

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Let There Be No Discords.

If your Ford car is out of tune, there is undoubtedly a very good reason for it. And the best way to find that reason, and have it remedied, is to jump in and drive to our authorized Service station, where one of our mechanics who is thoroughly acquainted with the Ford mechanism and who knows the Ford way to adjust or repair your car, can tune it up in a garage that is properly equipped to give real Ford service. Then, too we never use imitation parts—only the Genuine Ford-made, strong and durable. They wear from thirty to seventy-five per cent longer than the counterfeit parts that are softer and more cheaply made. In fact it is dangerous to human life to use imitation parts, and it is not fair to your Ford car or your pocket book.

We are a part of the gigantic Ford Service organization whose purpose it is to serve the owners of all Ford cars and trucks; we have more than a passing interest in your car. Prompt service is given on all work—from a minor adjustment to a motor overhaul. Drive in and see the facts for yourself—there's too much money invested in your Ford car to miss connections with the authorized Ford dealers.
